This PDF is part of the Philadelphia Water Department Historical Collection Accession 2004.071.0001 Frederic Graff Jr. Scrapbook, 1854-1857

It was downloaded from www.phillyh2o.org
Mr. Robert Evans, a Special Committee appointed to investigate the charges made by Mr. Brown, of the report on the Resolutions as possible.

Mr. Mott moved to lay the resolution on the table. The motion was seconded, and on the adoption of the motion, the question was immediately taken, and by a show of hands, the motion was carried, the ayes having 25, and the noes 0.

Mr. Gorman spoke upon the subject of the resolution. He thought the Committee had no right to decide upon the question of the existence of the power to call out the militia, and that the resolution was the result of an attempt to throw the war upon the State, and to prevent the Committee from doing its duty as it was supposed to do.

Mr. Gorman spoke of the conduct of the Committee, and of the manner in which the issue of the war was made. He said that the Committee had not the power to decide upon the question of the existence of the power to call out the militia, and that the resolution was the result of an attempt to throw the war upon the State, and to prevent the Committee from doing its duty as it was supposed to do.

The resolution was then taken up and considered by the Committee. The question was put, and the ayes having 25, and the noes 0, the resolution was carried.

A resolution from Governor Cossar relative to the preservation of public officers, induced a very lengthy debate on the resolution. Mr. Lord referred to it to the Committee on War.

Resolutions presented by Mr. Evans, of the report on the Resolutions as possible.

Mr. Mott moved to lay the resolution on the table. The motion was seconded, and on the adoption of the motion, the question was immediately taken, and by a show of hands, the motion was carried, the ayes having 25, and the noes 0.

Mr. Gorman spoke upon the subject of the resolution. He thought the Committee had no right to decide upon the question of the existence of the power to call out the militia, and that the resolution was the result of an attempt to throw the war upon the State, and to prevent the Committee from doing its duty as it was supposed to do.

Mr. Gorman spoke of the conduct of the Committee, and of the manner in which the issue of the war was made. He said that the Committee had not the power to decide upon the question of the existence of the power to call out the militia, and that the resolution was the result of an attempt to throw the war upon the State, and to prevent the Committee from doing its duty as it was supposed to do.

The resolution was then taken up and considered by the Committee. The question was put, and the ayes having 25, and the noes 0, the resolution was carried.

A resolution from Governor Cossar relative to the preservation of public officers, induced a very lengthy debate on the resolution. Mr. Lord referred to it to the Committee on War.

Resolutions presented by Mr. Evans, of the report on the Resolutions as possible.

Mr. Mott moved to lay the resolution on the table. The motion was seconded, and on the adoption of the motion, the question was immediately taken, and by a show of hands, the motion was carried, the ayes having 25, and the noes 0.

Mr. Gorman spoke upon the subject of the resolution. He thought the Committee had no right to decide upon the question of the existence of the power to call out the militia, and that the resolution was the result of an attempt to throw the war upon the State, and to prevent the Committee from doing its duty as it was supposed to do.

Mr. Gorman spoke of the conduct of the Committee, and of the manner in which the issue of the war was made. He said that the Committee had not the power to decide upon the question of the existence of the power to call out the militia, and that the resolution was the result of an attempt to throw the war upon the State, and to prevent the Committee from doing its duty as it was supposed to do.

The resolution was then taken up and considered by the Committee. The question was put, and the ayes having 25, and the noes 0, the resolution was carried.

A resolution from Governor Cossar relative to the preservation of public officers, induced a very lengthy debate on the resolution. Mr. Lord referred to it to the Committee on War.

Resolutions presented by Mr. Evans, of the report on the Resolutions as possible.

Mr. Mott moved to lay the resolution on the table. The motion was seconded, and on the adoption of the motion, the question was immediately taken, and by a show of hands, the motion was carried, the ayes having 25, and the noes 0.

Mr. Gorman spoke upon the subject of the resolution. He thought the Committee had no right to decide upon the question of the existence of the power to call out the militia, and that the resolution was the result of an attempt to throw the war upon the State, and to prevent the Committee from doing its duty as it was supposed to do.

Mr. Gorman spoke of the conduct of the Committee, and of the manner in which the issue of the war was made. He said that the Committee had not the power to decide upon the question of the existence of the power to call out the militia, and that the resolution was the result of an attempt to throw the war upon the State, and to prevent the Committee from doing its duty as it was supposed to do.

The resolution was then taken up and considered by the Committee. The question was put, and the ayes having 25, and the noes 0, the resolution was carried.

A resolution from Governor Cossar relative to the preservation of public officers, induced a very lengthy debate on the resolution. Mr. Lord referred to it to the Committee on War.

Resolutions presented by Mr. Evans, of the report on the Resolutions as possible.

Mr. Mott moved to lay the resolution on the table. The motion was seconded, and on the adoption of the motion, the question was immediately taken, and by a show of hands, the motion was carried, the ayes having 25, and the noes 0.

Mr. Gorman spoke upon the subject of the resolution. He thought the Committee had no right to decide upon the question of the existence of the power to call out the militia, and that the resolution was the result of an attempt to throw the war upon the State, and to prevent the Committee from doing its duty as it was supposed to do.

Mr. Gorman spoke of the conduct of the Committee, and of the manner in which the issue of the war was made. He said that the Committee had not the power to decide upon the question of the existence of the power to call out the militia, and that the resolution was the result of an attempt to throw the war upon the State, and to prevent the Committee from doing its duty as it was supposed to do.

The resolution was then taken up and considered by the Committee. The question was put, and the ayes having 25, and the noes 0, the resolution was carried.

A resolution from Governor Cossar relative to the preservation of public officers, induced a very lengthy debate on the resolution. Mr. Lord referred to it to the Committee on War.