ARAMINGO CANAL
ARCHAEOLOGICAL INVESTIGATION

I-95
GIRARD AVENUE INTERCHANGE
RECONFIGURATION PROJECT

Len Pundt, Photographer
Arrow indicates Gunnar’s Run, stream that was first converted into Aramingo Canal, later into a sewer.
STREAMS CONVERTED TO SEWERS

PHILADELPHIA WATER DEPARTMENT
REMAINING SURFACE STREAMS

PHILADELPHIA WATER DEPARTMENT
Detail from an 1849 map. Note actual route of Gunner’s [Gunnar’s] Run and “Proposed Canal.” In this case, Norris St. is just above the word “Proposed” while wider York St. terminates in the dark square.
I-95 GIRARD AVE INTERCHANGE, BEFORE RECONFIGURATION
(YELLOW RECTANGLE INDICATES SITE OF ARCHEOLOGICAL INVESTIGATION)
The new I-95 Girard Avenue Interchange and related improvements.

I-95 GIRARD AVE INTERCHANGE, PROPOSED RECONFIGURATION
(RED RECTANGLE, AT ARROW, INDICATES SITE OF ARCHEOLOGICAL INVESTIGATION)
I-95 GIRARD AVE INTERCHANGE, BEFORE RECONFIGURATION
(YELLOW RECTANGLE INDICATES SITE OF ARCHEOLOGICAL INVESTIGATION)